Pastor Speaks

SHORT OR LONG HAIR . . . WHICH?

I Cor. 11:14 . . . "Doth not even nature itself teach you, that, if a man have long hair, it is a shame unto him?"

Of late, it has been quite disturbing to me to see those who profess the Lord as their Saviour trying to find justification for their violation of the plan and purpose of our Lord for His people. I am speaking of those who seem to be rebelling against all proper authority concerning long hair on boys and men.

In I Tim. 2:9 . . . we have a Godly principle set forth for our women and their dress and also their hair. "In like manner also, that women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shame-facedness and sobriety; not with broided hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array". One simple explanation and application is set forth for concerning our ladies. It seems quite clear from their passage of scripture that it is God's mind mini skirts and that which would be flashy and fleshy before the eyes of the world is absolutely ruled out.

In the book of Titus 2:14 we read, "Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works."

In I Peter 2:9 . . . "But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should shew forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light".

Space will not permit me to put down Exodus 19:5 and Deut. 14:2 where it dwells on a peculiar treasure and a Holy people. Many other scriptures could be called to your attention concerning God's people as being different from the world.

In I Cor. 11:14 we read, "Doth not even nature itself teach you, that, if a man have long hair, it is a shame unto him?". The question today is "What is long and what is not long"? The answer is that when a man's hair becomes offensive to others of the household of faith in that it is embarrassing, I think it can be stipulated, too long. Paul said, "If eating meat offend my brother, I will eat no meat."

In I Cor. chapter 11 there is set forth for God's people the Principles of the Word, verses 1-6, Secondly, He puts forth the Pattern to follow, verses 4-16, of which I call to your attention verse 14, "Doth not even nature itself teach you, that, if a man have long hair, it is a shame unto him?" The balance of the chapter shows us that the peculiarity of God's people.

Why is it a shame for a man to have long hair? Because it follows the pattern of the world and worlding rather than the Lord and Worldly people.

Secondly, the answer of men who wear long hair is that we are just following style. My question is this, "Whose style are you following?" Should not God's people set the style and fashions that are being set by the influence of the world.

I trust that this message will be a help to the young folk of our county and community. Read if you will II Cor. 6:11-18 and then cut your hair.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

BY LAWRENCE W. ALTHOUSE

THE WAR WITHIN

Lesson for June 13, 1971

Background Scripture: Isaiah 2:2-4; 9:2-7; 11:1-10.
Devotional Reading: Isaiah 11:1-10.

World peace is as much a problem today as at any time in the history of mankind. It is probably an even greater problem today because of man's greater capacity for rendering destruction and, misery to more people, faster than ever before.

"It Shall Come To Pass"

It is easy to understand men's dreams of peace. The people of Israel looked for the great day when the Kingdom of God would finally be established in the world. The prophet Isaiah, spoke poetically of Israel's dreams of peace:

"and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning hooks; nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more." (Isaiah 2:4)

The wolf shall also dwell with the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the kid; and the calf and the young lion and the fatling together; and a child shall lead them. (Isaiah 11:6)

But more than two thousand years have passed and that dream has still not been fulfilled. After centuries of warfare and billions of victims, it is not hard to understand the dispair that many people feel. When shall the lion "eat straw," the wolf "dwell with the lamb," and swords be beaten "into plowshares?"

Part Of The Iceberg

One of our difficulties is that we tend to think of peace as something which is primarily a matter of the external relations between nations and people. From our point of view, it is a matter of the Soviet Union giving up its aggressive intentions in the world, of Red China learning to live in peace with other nations, of the Israeli and Arab learning to settle their disputes in the Middle East, and the North Vietnamese agreeing to leave "in peace" the people of South Viet Nam.

This, however, is only part of the problem. It is comparable to that part of the iceberg that is visible above the water. Peace between nations is simply another perspective to the problem of inner peace within the lives of individuals. Wars between nations are really large-scale manifestations of the wars that take place within men.

Robert Louis Stevenson's novel, DR. JEKYLL AND MR. HYDE, is a fascinating description of the human war that rages within all men. Two personalities were at war within Dr. Jekyll. Modern psychiatry sees this inner conflict as the seat of many of our emotional and physical disturbances. Freud, the father of modern psychiatry, wrote at length of this inner war, ascribing sexual conflicts as the cause. Adler, one of Freud's disciples, saw it primarily in terms of a ruthless drive for power and supremacy. Karl Menninger, a prominent analyst today, sees it as a struggle between a "life instinct" and a "death instinct."

Christianity believes that the means to find inner peace has come to us in the person of Jesus Christ. It is his peace alone—"not as the world giveth (peace)"— that is able to bring harmony within the soul of man, and since man cannot achieve harmony with others so long as he is at war within himself, the peace of Jesus Christ is the key to world peace.

Reader Shares Favorite Poem

Mrs. Addie Ould, of Appomattox, who just recently returned from a stay in a hospital brought to the Times-Virginian a copy of a poem she would like to share with readers. She says that friends and neighbors have been so thoughtful that the poem expresses her feelings very well.

WORDS OR WREATHS
By: E. A. Nash

If you'll give me some attention
while I'm living
And not leave it all to given when
I'm gone,
It will mean I'll appreciate the giving
And thank you when I cannot – later on.

A smile, a word of comfort is a pleasure
And it helps to clear the dark skies overhead
And I feel that now 'twill help men in a measure
For I may not know you did it
When I'm dead.

So cheer our friends a little while they're living,
We can find so much to praise,
if we but try,
Our flower of joy that springs
from each giving
Is worth a million roses when they die.
